Sponsored Silence - Thursday 24th March

The School Council have organised a sponsored silence in aid of Zoe's Place.

This will take place on Thursday March 24th. Each teacher will organise the time with their class. It is expected to last 15 minutes. In order to keep children safe and prevent them knocking on doors or asking strangers for sponsorship money there will be no sponsor forms issued. In order to participate and help this worthy cause pupils will need to bring in a donation in the envelope provided.

Positive Behaviour Support

For parent / carers in Middlesbrough

Tuesday 3rd May 2016

09:30am – 12:30pm

My Place My Place, Custom House, North Street, Middlesbrough, TS2 1JP

About CAMHS Training

The emphasis throughout the training is on ways to improve outcomes for children and young people. The sessions are designed to be informative and interactive, participation, group work and discussion will be key learning methods used throughout.

The session is tailored to parent/carers with no previous mental health knowledge; the session is suitable for parents/carers who wish to develop an understanding of children's mental health issues using a risk and resilience framework.

What to expect from an Introduction to Positive Behaviour Support

This session will provide an overview of why difficult behaviours might develop and explore positive and proactive ways of managing behaviour using a Positive Behaviour Support model.

For further information or to book a place on the above session, please contact:

TEWV.CAMHS-Training@nhs.net or 0300 013 2000 (option 6)

SPORTS NEWS UPDATE

NETBALL WINNERS

Congratulations to the Y6 pupils who represented Archibald at the Middlesbrough School Netball Tournament on the afternoon of Thursday 17th March.

Not only did the mixed team represent the school well, they came back with a fantastic trophy and a winners medal each in recognition of coming first. This is a fantastic achievement as there were a total of 20 different schools in the competition.

SPORTS RELIEF 2016

Thank you to all the pupils, staff, parents and carers who participated in the sports relief mile on Friday. Over £180 was raised by the school. Thank you to Miss Watson and Mrs Smith for helping to organise such a great event.

Introducing Archibald Tea Time Team

After Easter we will be launching an exciting after school activity
Archibald Tea Time Team.

This provision will be available each school day from 3pm – 5:45pm, and children will be able to attend for up to 1 hour, up to 2 hours or for the whole session.

Children who attend our Tea Time Team will be able to enjoy a range of interesting and exciting games and activities including:-

- Pool tables
- Table top games
- Outside sports/games
- Music making activities
- Craft activities
- Indoor sports/games
- Cookery
- Craft activities
- Computing activities
- Regular competitions

* not every activity will be on offer every day.

Pupils will be able to join the Tea Time Team after school (younger children will be collected from their classroom), or after attending one of our after school clubs.

The activities will be based in our dining room, in our art room and outside in the playgrounds and MUGA – which will be floodlit in winter months!

Places must be booked and paid for in advance.

A snack will be served at 4:15pm each afternoon.

To find out more information, or to book places please enquire at the school office.
