HAPPY NEW YEAR 2019!

Welcome back to the new term. As ever the Spring term is always busy in school. This term we have two special weeks. The first for KS2 is our Shakespeare Special Week. Pupils in KS2 will perform ‘Romeo and Juliet’ on February 14th. After the half term holiday, the Shakespeare Special week will be for EYFS and KS1 who will perform ‘The Tempest’. In the weeks leading up to these performances pupils will be busy practicing and completing writing activities based on their Shakespeare play.

We welcome three new members of staff to Archibald this term. Mr Wilson is a TA in Y6 supporting Mrs Blyth and Mrs Dalton, Miss Gowland will be working in Y4 supporting Miss Rogers and Mrs Walker is our new PSA and deputy safeguarding lead who will be based in the school office

Archibald Primary School Safeguarding Leads: Mrs E Verheyen , Mrs S Walker, Mrs A Jefferies

Club

Mr Appleyard and Miss Laden's class would like to invite parents, family members and carers to come in and read with their children on a Monday and Tuesday morning throughout the Spring Term.

You just need to come in with your child and go straight to the upstairs hall.

There will be staff members there to assist you if needed.

You do not need to sign up and can attend as often as you can.
